Hear the anthem,
Hear it calling -
Calling loud and free,
Hail to thee, Oh Great Bridge High School,
Hail, oh hail to thee.

In Memory

Mrs. Elsie M. Pedersen

In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you.
. . . He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that knew him.

Class History—1962

As we walk down the Halls of Great Bridge High School for the last time as students, we have mixed emotions.

We have fought twelve hard years for our status as SENIORS; and now that we are seniors, we are sad. We are sad that we will no longer be a part of Great Bridge High School and that we are leaving many friends behind. But we must remember that these have been happy years, and we shall remember them the rest of our lives.

Thinking back on these years, we remember our first year here at Great Bridge. At last, we were FRESHMEN! Our freshman dance was named the Flop; and it was not a flop, thanks to our Class Officers: Roxie Powers, President; Dudley Miles, Vice-President; Ronnie Guard, Treasurer; Joan Wilson, Secretary; and Joyce Lane, Reporter.

Our SOPHOMORE year was off to a good start. We elected Penny Braxton, President; Steve Sanderlin, Vice-President; Ann Sawyer, Treasurer; Roxie Powers, Secretary; and Allen Morse, Reporter. Our dance "What Blew In" was a success. As sophomores, we were beginning to feel that we were really and truly a part of Great Bridge High School.

JUNIORS! We could hardly believe it! Just two more years of high school! What a year this was! The junior class dance-"S.O.C.K.S."- was a great success. We really danced in our socks and had to pay to get our shoes back. We shall always remember selling candy for the greatest Junior-Senior ever.

Our class officers, President, Dudley Miles; Vice-President, Steve Sanderlin; Treasurer, Janice Olah; Secretary, Roxie Powers; and Reporter, Sandy McPherson, saw to it that our Junior-Senior Prom "Dansez en Paris" was the best ever. That night, the trip to the Lafayette Yacht Club was the high-light of our junior year.

We can't forget the patience of the guidance counselors as they tried to prepare us for our senior year.

At last! Our SENIOR year was here! We were SENIORS. We shall never forget the day our senior rings finally became OURS. We were the first senior class to have the senior rings waiting for us when school started.

We shall also remember those first days of school last fall, when we realized that we were the HEAD of Great Bridge High School. The student body would look up to us; were we ready to guide them?

How well the first assembly is remembered. Everyone stood as we marched in to the tune of our Alma Mater. Our first senior class meeting, led by Billy Jenkins, President; Steve Sanderlin, Vice-President; Janice Olah, Treasurer; Roxie Powers, Secretary; and Allen Morse, Reporter, was the place we learned that no underclassmen could attend the prom.

How could we ever forget our senior trip to New York: Staying up all night, all the little private parties, the Broadway shows, and the night clubs! No, New York, you will not be forgotten.

The prom will never be forgotten. Juniors, thanks a million. It was grand.

As we march to the strands of "Pomp and Circumstance," we realize it is all over. A part of our life is being left behind; we are walking into a new way of life.

For us the halls of Great Bridge are empty now. The class of 1962 has left, never to return as students. But in our hearts we will remember "Alma Mater" days.

Class Historian

Prophecy

It is 1972, the year the Future Spacemen of America throw a big reunion for the Class of 1962. "Silver Acres" is the reunion site; this is the home of our rich police chief RONNIE GUARD and his wife Hilda. The first group to arrive are our local firemen JERRY SYKES, JERRY MEEKINS, DAVID LEARY and TOMMY JOE WILLIAMS. On the roof of this vast mansion is DUDLEY MILES, who is inspecting the fine work he and ENNIS HUDGINS did roofing this house. Here come DAVE McMANUS and STEVE SANDERLIN who now play for the Washington Red Skins, who are still losing. ANNETTE MARSH, JOHN LILLY, VERNON PUGH and KELLY FOREHAND are all partners in a vast florist business. I also bumped into JOHN FLEMMING, a famed plastic surgeon and LAWRENCE WAYNE PITTMANN, a psychiatrist. LINDA JENNETTE is doing those busy day commercials you always see on the BOB WHITE Show on Channel 27. GENE VINSON, JEFF HALL, BILLY HOBBS, WILLIE STRICKLAND, and DAVID MILES have bought out Bonnie Be-Lo, and JIMMY LONG with BILL GRYMES now own a hamburger joint next to TOMMY YATES' garage.

Now as the entertainment begins, the great CAROL CAPUTO Dancers strut in featuring MARY FAYE SPRUILL, LYNN FANTASIA, PENNY STEEL, LINDA SMITH and LARRY STEVENS. After this we listen to the LEROY VAUGHN Five with ANN GOIN at the banjo, EARL HARRISON at the piccolo, GERRY LOVELACE at the tuba and HARVEY SULLIVAN playing the Jews harp. WARREN McDONALD sings his latest hit for R.C.A., and DIANA MERRILL gives a solo on the bongos.

Standing at the bar is gas station attendant JIMMY CURRIN having a drink with White Sox second baseman JOHN DAVIS. Two butlers at "Silver Acres," by the names of DANNY DILDAY and BILLY DeFORD have chased a herd of horses owned by JUDY DOMINICK. Following them are PRESTON BASNIGHT, RODNEY CARLSON, AUDREY THOMPSON and DAVID TAYLOR with brooms and shovels in hand. They are our City Sanitation Squad. Mr. Eley, who begins his hundredth year as G.B.'s principal, is chatting with our head football coaches, CHARLES JOHNSON and RICHARD ALVAREZ.

As we walk into the kitchen LINDA BASHFORD, the chief cook, with assistants, JOHN BALONIS, FAW MILLER, and FAYE MASON, whose recipes are featured in Mechanix Illustrated, is arguing with maids FAYE BERGER, JOYCE LANE, PAULA LOWRY, LAURA HALSTEAD, and ALICE BAREFOOT, over who should be testing the famous wine made by the ELWYN EARL EBERHARD JOHN LAWRENCE GERSTEIN, JR. Wine Co. of Berkley. SUE OGLESBY, CARL RATCLIFF, KENNY WEAVER, PAT ALTICE, PENNY BRAXTON and JOHNNY ROWLAND, all members at HENRY BILLUPS Health Studio, are stuffing themselves in the opposite corner.

Meanwhile, in the roped off section, a riot is erupting, and the Keystone Cops burst in; leader of the group is NELSON LEE followed by JAMES MURPHY, RALPH POWERS, JOHN BUTLER, HERBERT BLACKWELL and ROBERT BATSON. There is a scramble between EDDIE KNIGHT and BOBBY KINNARD over a dance with banker RALIEGH VOIGHT. GALE CULPEPPER hits EDDIE FINCH because he expelled his son from school for kicking gym teacher RICKY WERGLEY. Also, ALICE HARRIS kicks SANDY HALL for criticizing the Navy.

Turning on the T.V., we see MIKE FOUTS doing ExLac advertisements on the WILEY FUTRALL Show. Next, BRUCE LINTON, BILL JOHNSON, NANCY PAXSON, JOE PHIBBS and FRANCIS PUGH do a soft shoe strut across the stage. Followed by a new group who call themselves the Original 3 Stooges go ALLEN MORSE, WAYNE PITTMAN, and DAVID HARRIS. They were so rotten we had to leave and rejoin the party.

Talking to JOAN WILSON, we find out she is a famed model for the great Farmers Market. Over near the hi-fi set we see dentist KENNY PHIBBS talking to big game hunter RONALD BAINES. Beatnick HOWARD WENGER is reading his original poetry to housewives JOYCE WOMACK, DIANA WILLIAMS, SYLVIA BEDSOLE, BETTY BOECKMAN, and LINDA EVANS. Coming in late with their lunch boxes are the Navy Yard Five-MARVIN DEAL, JOHN CRISP, LEEMAN LAMB, JOHN McDONALD, and FRED HACKWORTH. Also, SONNY FLOYD, RAY EASON, LEON MUSSELWHITE and JOHN VARDARO who work at the same gas station. RONNIE ROE, THOMAS SAWYER, DONNIE UMPHLETTE, LARRY WALL and BILLY BROWN are battle ship tenders in the Navy.

Out in the tropical garden is "Silver Acres" social director, LaRAY WILLIAMS, talking to playboy BUTCH MOORE. Next to them are news commentators KARL ROBERSON, MIKE BROWN and TOM BRANTLEY arguing with writers CHARLES BALL, JAMES BAKER and ARLENE CULPEPPER over the present world conditions. Coming back inside, we see a crowd consisting of actress TONI DAVENPORT; soda jerk LAURITA DOUGHTIE; telephone operators MARGARET DUNN, JUDY EDWARDS, MARY COX, CAROL COOPER, LINDA LOVE, SYLVIA JULIAN and FREDDIE LARKIN. Also school teachers JOHN McDONALD, KATHERINE LANE, MARIAN LANE, MARY LOEHR, JAMES GAY, and funeral director BILL JENKINS watch bartender JOE DUNHAM wrestle dictionary writer WARREN WRIGHT. Refereeing the match is dress designer LARRY WEEKS. Watching all this is Mr. Moore, who is trying to make DAVE WILCOX, JIMMY WILLIAMS, GRAHAM BALL and PHYLLIS BOYKIN serve hours they still owe him. MARJORIE BURNETTE, RONALD BROADHURST, BILL ANDERSON, JERRY ALLISON, all farm hands for JANICE OLAH, had to leave when they heard their mules had got loose. JAMES ALSTON, MADELYN BRAUDRICK, LINDA EVANS, and FAYE EMERSON are all discussing P.T.A. business while ELINOR DOWDY and ELIZABETH DUNCAN who are dragging their husbands away from movie stars LINDA HINTON, LYNN WILLIAMS and MERLE KAY. Police women ZORA HERRINGTON, DIANA HOLCOMBE, LORRAINE HOLLAND, TONI HOUSH, CAROLYN HAMMILL and BEVERLY GUFFEY are getting lessons from Mr. Stiers on how to be a "Detective". SANDRA FORDHAM, LORETTA CRAFTON, SANDRA McPHERSON, ROXIE POWERS, JOYCE ROBBINS and SKERBY JOHNSON are all working for JUDY STELTZNER'S House of Clothing in downtown Hickory Tech. JOYCE STANLEY, teacher at G.B., is talking to a group of parents who don't think their children are being treated right. The parents are PAT WILSON, PAT WRIGHT, PAT WYNN, LOUIS REDD, and the maddest of all, NINA MILLER. Trying to calm her down are DONNA MOORE and MARIANNE PALOS, our school nurses. WANDA RALPH, DOUG RICHARD, MARY SUE IVEY, JOY WENGER, JESSIE WHITEHURST, SANDY SPURLIN, LINDA TWINE, and PEGGY SAVAGE are hustling the last of the Cokes, as SHARON POWELL, DIANE NORMAN, GLENDA MILLER, ALBERT FORREST and NORMA GARGIS are busy munching the remains of the potato chips. CARL HANBURY offers MARY LOU HAMMOND, who has had too much ginger ale, a ride home. BILL G. JOHNSON, SHELBY JONES, and CONNIE KAYTON are backing LINDA NASH as she sings an 'ole favorite, "Candy Man." Truck drivers KIRBY KAYE SMITH, ROBERTA CLEMENTS, CAROLYN CLARK, CAROL COOPER and ELLA MORGAN are delivering more and more refreshments for this crazy reunion. Sitting in the corner taking it all in is social analyst LINDA NEWMAN and the head of the P.T.A. ELLA MORGAN. As we leave and express our last good-bys, we meet department store owner ERNIE ROEBUCK talking to his secretary ELAINE TWIDDY.

We stumble over SANDRA ROSENFELDT who is painting '62's class saying on the hall rug. ANN SAWYER, SANDRA RUTTER and PEGGY SPRINGFIELD are our parking lot attendants. As we tip them, we see BRENDA STEWART and JANE TETER directing traffic. We also see MARY THOMPSON, CLAYTON SMITH, JACKIE SMALL and CONNIE SIRMANS who don't know if this is the right mansion and SUELLA WILLIS who doesn't know if she is with the right people.

Organizations

Student Cooperative

Karen Halstead
County Representative

The entire student body of Great Bridge composes the Student Cooperative Association, its representative body being the Student Council. The Council forms a link between the faculty and students and works always for cooperation and understanding between the two groups.

Because the S.C.A. is the largest and most important organization in school, its objectives and aims must be far-reaching in many areas. This year we were guided by the following objectives:

1. To promote better school spirit.
2. To encourage students to improve safety habits.
3. To conduct a program of orientation.
4. To encourage increased participation in student activities.
5. To provide services beneficial to the student body.
6. To initiate a positive program of international understanding.
7. To encourage higher standards of scholastic achievement through integrity.

Varsity

This was truly a great year for the Wildcats as they ended the season with an 8-1-1 record.

The most exciting game to be remembered is the Maury game. In this thrilling clash of Eastern District football powers, the Wildcats knocked Maury out of the race for the State Championship, returning the favor they did us last year.

Then, who could forget the Norview game! This was the clash for the Eastern District honors. The Wildcats played hard and fought to the last second. When the gun blew, it was 9 to 7 in Norview's favor. In this game the Wildcats displayed the marks of real champions.

Coach O'Brien's excellent program that was followed in the summer camp at Virginia Beach, along with the team's hard practice of the Wing-T formation, paid off. Great Bridge's clicking and not-to-be stopped offense was one of the top in the State; and their defense held opponents to record minimum points.

Coaches Henderson, Calhoun, O'Brien, Jennings, and Blevins.

Raleigh dropped a button.

Football

We are indeed proud of our boys who have brought fine athletic recognition to our school. Of course, we cannot forget Raleigh Voight. Raleigh was the highest scorer in the State with 108 points. Beside making All Eastern and All Tidewater, Raleigh also made the All-Dream Team - All State. Steve Sanderlin, our outstanding guard, also made All State along with All Eastern and All Tidewater. Some coaches say, "He's the best in the State."

Center Bobby Kinnard is the other member of the All State team. Bobby played excellent football this season, not just offense, but defense also. Bobby also made All Eastern and All Tidewater.

Other players who made All Eastern and All Tidewater are David McManus, Ken Barefoot, and Lucian Thompson.

Abbey,

Another year has finally passed and I thought it never would. 1964 is getting closer and closer and you know what that means --- graduation is closer, doesn't it? It won't be long before your Air Force Troopers and my little F.B.M.'s will be home. Maybe when they come home Ray will have to leave and we can sympathize with Nancy. Ha?! Seriously, I can't see great Lakes and Ray with Patsy and Laurie assigning over Patsy's date for the prom.

I'll never forget the fun we had at the prom. We hope to have (??) that I really mean it. Boy, that I'll never forget (wonderful time) in the Simcal! Well it's late enough for me to write this and I think I'd better stop while I'm ahead.

Be good - if you can't, write anyway. Remember the rings will tell on you if you're not. Always remember....

Abey,

It has been alot of fun this year sitting with you at the lunch table even though at times you did get a little red under the collar. Remember all of the jokes that we told. Let me tell them were really way out. But maybe next year we can get it together and tell some more of those way out jokes. Remember the time that we went over to William and Mary and that boy had to get the car out of the parking lot. Have a real nice summer and call me sometime and maybe we can go somewhere together. Hope all your dreams come true (and that includes Richard).

Good luck always,

Your friend always,

Patsy Mayo

P.S.

See you next year under classmans.

Congratulations

MR. ELEY for graciously granting us permission each time we felt the need for upsetting our daily schedule.

MR. McINTOSH for having so much patience and sharing his ideas for pictures.

MR. HASH for working with us.

MRS. PHELPS for assisting in organization.

THE FACULTY for accepting that students had to miss class.
